

SOUL

Friday, February 7, 2020

To Whom This May Concern:

Soul Center for the Arts (the Gallery) is a subsidiary of the U.S. based nonprofit organization Soul of Nations Inc. (the Organization). The Gallery is presenting a series of exhibitions, workshops, and other art-related events internationally for physical and online use.

The Gallery's Plastic Spirit exhibition, opening on March 12, 2020, in Genova, Italy, is no way, shape, or form supporting the use of tobacco and aims to protect the successful implementation of effective measures against tobacco advertising, promotion, and sponsorship; in pursuance with Article 5.3, Article 6, Article 8, Article 13, and Article 16.

The Gallery's Plastic Spirit exhibition is pursuant to the regulation of tobacco advertising implemented in Article 51 of the Italian Prime Ministerial Decree; Ministerial Decree No. 425, implemented by Law No. 165; Legislative Decree No. 300, specifically implemented by EU Directive 2003/33/CE; Decree No. 10 implemented by EU Directives 2002/19/CE, 2002/20/CE, 2002/21/CE, and 2002/22/CE; Circular No. 2003/25137; and Circular No. 2003/56933.

All activities and imagery offered through the representation of the Gallery, under the administration of the Organization at-large, are protected under the fair use provisions of international copyright laws and fair use copyright laws in the United States.

All artworks included the Galleries' Plastic Spirit exhibition are in utmost compliance with freedom of expression and symbolic speech and are therefore protected under the terms of fair use copyright following:

- The use of copyrighted material for commentary purposes;
- The use of copyrighted material for criticism purposes;
- The use of copyrighted material for news reporting;
- The use of copyrighted material for teaching;
- The use of copyrighted material for research;
- The use of copyrighted material for scholarship.

For additional clarity, please contact the Organization's legal department.

Contact:

legal@soulofnations.org
+1 202.643.2164

Sincerely,
Soul of Nations Inc.

